

Fall for History - 2018

Registration Form for Admission Events

Friday, October 5

$10.00 - "Understanding Your Historic Building." Preservation architect Shannon Sardell will discuss character-defining features of historic buildings, and share some of Idaho's best preservation efforts. She will also address what it means to be listed on the National Register. 7 p.m., Sixth Street Theater.

Saturday, October 6

$10.00 - "Preserving Historic Homes." Board a trolley for this "rolling workshop" throughout a Wallace residential area as preservation expert Shannon Sardell points out features worthy of preservation or attention, especially in relation to Wallace's designation on the National Register of Historic Places. Tour leaves 9:30 a.m. from Sierra Silver Mine Tour office. Space limited.

$10.00 - "Cemetery Comes to Life." Catch a trolley to Wallace's Historic Nine Mile Cemetery where actors portray some of the notable and notorious who are buried there. Proceeds benefit the non-profit cemetery. Tours leave approximately every 30 minutes between 2 and 4 p.m. from Northern Pacific Depot Museum.

$25.00 advance; $30 at door - Dinner Show "The Great Land Rush of 1889." Enjoy a delicious dinner (not spaghetti!) in the company of other history buffs and then hear Wallace historian extraordinaire Ron Roizen share his research into the Land Rush and shenanigans that occurred in Wallace on February 19, 1889. Dinner at 6 p.m., program follows. Wallace Elks Lodge.

Sunday, October 7

$20.00 advance - "Historic Homes & Hot Tea" Tour Wallace's mirror-image Craftsman homes and two other historic houses, as well as two beautiful churches. Small groups led by guide. Tour ends with refreshments at one of the homes. Tours leave from Congregational Church at 408 Cedar Street and run every 30 minutes starting at noon, ending 3:00 p.m. Time assigned. $20 per person advance, $25 on Tour Day if space available.
